

Early Republic Study Guide

Note: This test is a review of the entire Early Republic chapter. It will primarily cover the Presidencies of James Madison and James Monroe. However, there will also be some basic questions about the Presidencies of Washington, Adams, and Jefferson. You should be well acquainted with the political parties, years in office, number of terms and big events of each of the first three Presidents. You will need to know, in detail, the events of Madison's and Monroe's Presidencies. You will also need to be able write two detailed essays. One essay will deal with the growth of our nation as a world power and the other will deal with the creation of a stable and permanent government.

James Madison's Presidency

1. What political party did James Madison belong to? _____
2. What years was James Madison in office? _____
3. How many terms did James Madison Serve? _____
4. List three reasons why Native Americans resented American settlers moving west of the Appalachians.
 - i. _____
 - ii. _____
 - iii. _____
5. What were the British hoping to accomplish by providing Tecumseh and other Native Americans with weapons? _____
6. What Shawnee leader formed a confederation to resist settlers moving west of the Appalachian Mountains? _____
7. What future American President defeated Tecumseh's Indian Confederation?

8. Where was Tecumseh's Indian Confederation defeated? _____
9. Why was the fighting at Tippecanoe more brutal than many thought it would be? _____

10. Americans who wanted to go to war in 1812 were called _____.

Name: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

11. Many Americans who wanted to go to war in 1812 were motivated by a growing sense of _____.

12. List three ways that England angered the United States prior to 1812.

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

13. During the War of 1812 the British were driven off of the Great Lakes at the battle of _____.

14. Who was the hero who emerged from that battle? _____

15. After the Battle of Lake Erie, the British and their Native American allies were pushed into Canada at the Battle of _____.

16. At the Battle of Thames, William Henry Harrison finished what he started at the Battle of Tippecanoe by killing _____.

17. The British burned Washington D.C. after the Battle of _____.

18. In order to invade Baltimore the British needed to destroy Fort _____.

19. The British bombarded Ft. McHenry from the evening of September 13th to the morning of September 14th, 1814. The events of that evening were recorded in a poem written by Sir. _____.

20. That poem was later put to music and became the _____.

21. During the Battle of _____, American forces under the command of General Andrew Jackson defeated the British and prevented them from taking control of the _____ River.

22. Though it was a stunning victory, the Battle of New Orleans actually took place _____ weeks after the War of 1812 had ended.

23. What treaty ended the War of 1812? _____

24. List 3 effects of the War of 1812:

- 1) _____
- 2) _____
- 3) _____

Name: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

25. What country controlled Florida during Madison's Presidency? _____

26. What were Native Americans in Florida doing that Angered many Americans? _____

27. How did General Andrew Jackson put an end to the Native American attacks? _____

28. The _____ - _____ Treaty of 1819 officially ceded Florida from Spain to the United States.

James Monroe's Presidency

29. What political party did James Monroe belong to? _____

30. What years was James Monroe in office? _____

31. How many terms did James Monroe serve as President? _____

32. President James Monroe issued the _____ because the United States did not want European countries trying to _____ newly independent Latin American Countries.

33. Why did James Monroe, as well as many other Americans, not want European countries trying to reconquer lost colonies in Latin America? _____

Name: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

Essays

Essay 1: Identify and describe two examples of foreign events that prove that the United States had grown strong enough to compete for power and respect on the world stage.

This image shows a single sheet of white paper with horizontal blue or grey ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and run across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Name: _____ Section: _____ Date: _____

Essay 2: Identify and describe two examples of domestic events that proved that the Federal government, under the Constitution, was strong enough to secure order and peace within the United States.

[illegible]

Essay Rubrics

Essay 1: Identify and describe two examples of foreign events that prove that the United States had grown strong enough to compete for power and respect on the world stage.

- I. Introduction (1 point)
- II. Examples of events that proved that the U.S. grew in world power and descriptions of those events. (4 points each)
 - a. XYZ Affair
 - b. War of 1812 (As far as the U.S. once again successfully stood up to the British)
 - c. Monroe Doctrine
 - d. Adams-Onis Treaty with Spain
- III. Conclusion (1 point)

Essay 2: Identify and describe two examples of domestic events that proved that the Federal government, under the Constitution, was strong enough to secure order and peace within the United States.

- I. Introduction (1 point)
- II. Examples of events that proved that the U.S. government, under the Constitution, was strong enough to secure order and peace within the country. (4 points each)
 - a. Whiskey Rebellion
 - b. Louisiana Purchase doubling the size of the United States
 - c. War of 1812 (As far as the U.S. was able to defend itself from attack)
 - d. Handling of Native Americans (Battle of Tippecanoe & Seminoles in Florida.
Need to explain each)
 - e. Marbury v Madison and the establishment of Judicial Review
- III. Conclusion (1 point)